

My dearly beloved friends, may you always, at all times, in every situation, & in all circumstances, every day, forever & ever

Overflow with perfect love!!!

For perfect love destroys fear, sorrow, worry, stress, sin & absolutely every curse in us; & overflows with ecstasy, peace, power, health, sure hope & every good & perfect gift, always, forever!!! Love is infinitely tenacious, kind, pure, & bold; is not arrogant, envious, selfish, provoked, lazy nor rude & thinks no evil!!! Love is sensitive, gentle, deliberate, absolutely devoted & never sins!!! Love whoops for joy in the truth but intensely hates evil & would rather be crucified than enjoy temporary vices!!! Love soars, never competes, acts, tires nor gives up but always wins!!! Love lays down its life, weeps, suffers & feels for others!!! Love is unswervingly persistent & relentless; can not be brought down nor knocked off course, is unbreakable, unstoppable & all powerful & is always completely content!!! Love listens & is always open to others!!! Love is uninhibited, harmless & hates to see anyone fall, even the wicked!!! Love blesses those who curse, is good to the bad, prays for the spiteful & abusive, & absolutely loves its enemies!!! Love never ends & never gives up on anyone!!! Love sticks up for the weak & poor & breaks up fights!!! Love bears no grudges, always turns the other cheek & very joyfully forgives!!! Love is the only answer & the only way to heaven!!! Love is desperate & passionate; an all consuming fire!!! Love is a soldier who strictly trains, avoids all civilian affairs, rises early in the morning to pray & is very cautious in friendship!!! Love is always alert, watchful, self-controlled & disciplined!!! Love is very wise & crafty to do good, but greatly fears to sin; for love knows sin brings fear, despair & many curses upon us & leads us to hell (except we change & give up all sin)!!! Love is heart broken by sin & vows to never sin by God's power & grace in us by faith in Jesus!!! So please pursue hard after love & always be perfect love expressed, in all you do, say & think; forever, by giving your heart, life & soul to God, by faith in Jesus Christ our risen Lord God, who died for us, but is alive again, forever!!!
